Writing

I would like to give a response to the following statement presented in my task.

It is believed, that everyone want to be healthy. Watching films and TV programmes about health people are inspired to be healthy.

It is truth that <sup>today</sup> people are not as healthy as they were 20 years ago. It is because they eat fast food regularly, sit in their homes and do nothing. Although they watch programmes about health and want to be healthy too.

But there are a lot of temptations which stop them to be healthy.

I can say, that all things <sup>100</sup> in our hands and we can cope with the problem. For example: doing sport, spend free time on the open air, eat healthy food.

In this response I would like to express my point of view on presented statement.
