What is your opinion about J. Kennedy? Somebody thinks he was a mean and bigheaded ruler. But in my mind he did the best for his country. Kennedy was really smart. And he left some phrases for the future rulers and their people.

One of these famous phrases J. Kennedy said on the press - confervation: "Don't ask what your country did for you, but ask what you did for your country?" In my opinion this phrase says us to do something useful for our country, and only after that people can critic ~~others~~ other people, who ~~rule and~~ usually do this on professional level. We need this practice to understand government, because ~~usual~~ sometimes we don't do this.

In my opinion these words are strong. But other people say J. Kennedy to keep his feet on the ground.
