Nowadays many young people eat unhealthy food, do not do sport. They become fatter and their health becomes worse.

Teens ate lots of vegetables and fruits twenty years ago but now people eat a lot of fast food. They drink fizzy drinks, eat chips and cookies with lot of sugar in it. Instead of doing sport or going to the gym people prefer stay in home and laid in a bed. I think if stay in home you can do gymnastics or aerobics. Advertisement also play a big role. Teens watch TV and see adorable can of fizzy drink, of course it is more attractive to drink a can of Cola than eat a salad.

In conclusion, young people must stop eating unhealthy food. They must do lots of activities. It is easy to be healthy.
