Now I will talk about young people health. I think, young people today are not as healthy as they were twenty years ago. Russian teenagers have a lot of bad and nervous emotional because they spend a lot of time in school. Young people eat fast food and do not sport because they not have much time for that. Twenty years ago young people did not computers, telephones and they have fun of walking, friendship and sport. Today young people like life in Internet more than real life.

In my opinion, we must live in real life, meet new friends, to do sports, eat healthy food and have fun!
