Writing.

My favorite book is „Kapitanskaya chetka" by Alexander Sergeevich Pushkin. I like the book because of the story line. Also I like the main character.

I had to read this book for my literature classes, but I liked it so much, so I decided to read it on English. It was even more interesting than reading it on Russian, because it was helpful to improve my English and also it was interesting to see how would some character change.

I think school library should have this book, because it was so hard to find the book on English and I think, if at school we talk about this book in our English classes, that would be so helpful to improve English skills and learn new words.
